Limitation of liability

1. The conference organisation (AP-Biomech 2023) reserves the right to change the venue or date of its conference up until the month before the conference. In the event that the venue or date are changed, AP-Biomech 2023 will not be responsible for covering airfare, hotel or any other costs incurred by the registrants. AP-Biomech 2023 will honor transfer of registration fees to the new date/venue. If you are no longer able to attend, AP-Biomech 2023 will return the registration fee minus an administrative cost, determined at the time.

2. The conference organisation (AP-Biomech 2023) reserves the right to change the content or speakers of its conference at any time without notification and will not be responsible for covering airfare, hotel or any other costs incurred by the registrants.

3. There will be either a partial or no refund in the case of the scientific programme and/or social events being partially or entirely delayed or cancelled because of events outside AP-Biomech 2023's reasonable control. The following events shall be taken to be outside AP-Biomech 2023's reasonable control: (a) acts of nature - natural disasters (e.g. earthquake, mountain slide); (b) outbreak of hostilities, riot, civil disturbance, acts of terrorism, invasion of Malaysia; (c) act of any government or relevant authority (including refusal or revocation of any license or consent); (d) fire, explosion, flood, leakage of water, extreme freezing fog, high winds or any other weather conditions, which, in the opinion of AP-Biomech 2023, renders the provision of the Service at that time impractical; (e) power failure; (f) default or delay of or change in arrangements made by suppliers, third party providers or sub-contractors; (g) theft, malicious damage, strike, lock-out or industrial action of any kind; (h) declaration of Public Health Emergency of International Concern (PHEIC) or a pandemic as declared by the World Health Organisation (WHO); (i) any cause or circumstances whatsoever beyond AP-Biomech 2023's reasonable control.

4. The conference organisation (AP-Biomech 2023) does not take out insurance to cover participants (or accept responsibility) against accidents, injury or loss suffered while attending events or other risks.

5. The conference organisation (AP-Biomech 2023) accepts no responsibility for any loss incurred of personal belongings deposited in the conference centre or of any material submitted to the conference (e.g. abstracts). These are the responsibility of the individual participant.

6. The copyright of all presentation material rests with the presenter and AP-Biomech 2023 may not be held responsible for any infringements as a result of plagiarism, libel, slander or any misuse of any material.

Privacy Notice and Data Protection Policy for AP-Biomech 2023 events Please be aware that registration for AP-Biomech 2023 events confirms acceptance of this privacy notice: AP-Biomech 2023 will be capturing the images of attendees at its events, including its conferences, symposia, webinars, and other virtual events, with photographic and video recording devices to be used for the exclusive purposes of AP-Biomech 2023, including being used for marketing, the AP-Biomech 2023 website, social media or historical records of AP-Biomech 2023 and may be shown to the public at large. AP-Biomech 2023 will only process these images of you in support of or furtherance of AP-Biomech 2023. This notice applies to images stored on AP-Biomech 2023 central database, as well as, to future images or recordings. Please be aware that AP-Biomech 2023 will also at times be using an automated system at conferences or virtual events (webinars, symposia etc.) that allows for the possible audio and/or video recording of lectures and then may make these available on the conference digital application as a learning resource at AP-Biomech 2023's discretion. Presenters will be forewarned and/or given the option to decline the recording by AP-Biomech 2023 of their presentation. AP-Biomech 2023 cannot be responsible for the actions of audience participants (for example, personal screenshots, recordings or mobile photographs). AP-Biomech 2023 strongly discourages participants from taking photos, screenshots or recordings in any manner of the presentations without the explicit consent of the presenter(s) in the interests to foster a collaborative and collegial 'open science' forum. It is the sole responsibility of presenters to determine carefully what research to disclose when presenting. AP-Biomech 2023 encourages presenters to carefully consider the degree of detail disclosed in advance of any disclosure, so as not to jeopardize any prospects, and we recommend seeking professional advice on such matters. If a recording of a lecture is going to take place at a time you are in attendance (physically or virtually), you will be informed (verbally or digitally) prior to the start of any recording taking place and where it will be made available. Explicit consent is therefore not sought from individuals. Those who do not wish to participate may choose not to attend or refrain from asking questions if they so wish, or turn off their camera and mute themselves for virtual events. AP-Biomech 2023 respects the privacy of individuals and their rights to their personal information. AP-Biomech 2023 will remove any photographs upon written request by individuals who object to the use of the image where they are recognizable within the image.
